United Nations Association of Australia WORLD ENVIRONMENT DAY AWARDS 2008

'Think Global, Act Local'

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

Nominations for the World Environment Day Awards 2008 are now open nationally. Each year the UNAA supports World Environment Day through the World Environment Day Awards. The United Nations Association of Australia World Environment Day Awards is a national awards program which recognizes businesses, local governments, organisations, community groups, individuals, schools and the media whose work serves to protect, manage or restore the environment.

"The award program is an ideal platform for all sectors of the Australian community to showcase the many important and exciting environmental projects and initiatives developed across the country over the past year. The Awards seek to encourage and recognise environmental leadership and stewardship and to promote awareness of environmental issues on a global scale," states Patricia Collett, Executive Director, UNAA Victoria.

The Award categories are:

- o Building Commission Award for Best Sustainable Residential Development Project
