

UNITED NATIONS ASSOCIATION OF AUSTRALIA

World Environment Day Awards 2001

Winners and Finalists

Local Government Awards

Excellence in Overall Environmental Management

- WINNER: City of Port Phillip
- South West Sustainability Partnership

Best Specific Environmental Initiative

- WINNER: City of Melbourne (Sustainable Energy and Greenhouse Strategy)
- Knox City Council (Old Joe's Creek Project)

Alcoa Awards for Community/Individual

Alcoa Award for Best Community Based Environmental Project or Initiative

- WINNER: CERES
- Land for Wildlife, Department of Natural Resources and Environment

Alcoa Award for Outstanding Service to the Environment

- WINNER: Joan Lindros (Melbourne/Geelong)
- David Ellemor (Swan Hill)

Global 500 Education/School Award

Global 500 Education Award for Best School Based Environmental Project

- WINNER: Caulfield Grammar School, Yarra Junction Campus (Earth Studies Centre)
- Beaconhills College, Pakenham (Field Naturalists Club)

City of Melbourne Awards for Business Enterprise

City of Melbourne Award for Best Specific Environmental Initiative

- WINNER: The Royal Australian Institute of Architects (BDP Environment Design Guide)
- Urban Land Corporation

City of Melbourne Award for Environmental Best Practice Program

- WINNER: City West Water Ltd
- The Schiavello Group

Media Awards for Environmental Reporting

Best Print Award

- WINNER: Claire Miller, The Age (Series of Articles)
- Australian Geographic
- Groundwork Magazine (The Australian Minerals and Energy Environment Foundation)

Best Radio Award

- WINNER: Philippe Tanguy, SBS Radio, 'Greening the World'
- Cathy Harper, SBS Radio News, 'Climate Change'

Best Television Award

- WINNER: Ian Henschke, TVE / ABC TV (4 Corners), 'Emission Impossible'
- Klaus Toft, ABC TV (Natural History Unit), 'La Niña'
- Ian Henschke, ABC TV (Landline), 'Organic Farming'